Whim Plantation Museum

Frederiksted, St. Croix, U.S. Virgin Islands

A tour of Whim Plantation Museum is a must for anyone seeking to experience the fascinating heritage of St. Croix!

See our fully restored windmill and steam mill.

History comes alive as you walk, with your guide, around the 18th and 19th century buildings and ruins of this former sugar estate. Your tour will show how the cane is converted to sugar and includes the product of this, the Greathouse, and the other buildings the people of the estate used.

Your gracious guides will tell you stories of the past inhabitants and life on the plantation. You will see the only rebuilt windmill in the Virgin Islands as well as many pieces of equipment from the sugar works. You will end your tour in the Museum Store, which offers a tempting selection of crafts, art, books and other interesting items to take home.

Please remember to also visit the Lawaetz Museum, only 3 miles away on Mahogany Road, Route 76, just north of Frederiksted.
